Invitation from the ICP 2012 President

Fellow Psychologists & Friends

It is South Africa's honour to invite you to the next International Congress of Psychology to be held in Cape Town, 22-27 July 2012. Building on the success of past International Congresses of Psychology, especially the gains of the 2008 Berlin Congress, ICP 2012 promises to be an unforgettable professional and scientific experience in a unique cultural environment.

Under the theme Psychology Serving Humanity, the Congress will showcase new frontiers of psychological science and practice as a means for improving, developing and enriching human life. This theme acknowledges that the discipline of psychology is inextricably engaged with the global and local communities in which we live, learn and practice.

The outstanding scientific programme will feature distinguished keynote addresses, cutting edge state of the science lectures, controversial debates, and compelling presentations by leaders in the various fields of psychology. Some 300 global experts in their fields have already confirmed their participation. You are invited to submit abstracts for papers, symposia, interactive posters, and rapid communication posters, thereby sharing your personal knowledge and experience for the greater good of humanity.

The Congress will be held at the Cape Town International Convention Centre (CTICC), an award-winning world-class venue located in the foreshore with a stunning view of Table Mountain. Offering a variety of tours and wildlife safaris for delegates and guests, ICP 2012 will allow you to discover the unrivalled beauty and culture of Cape Town, as well as the amazing diversity and hospitality of the people of South Africa.

ICP 2012 looks forward to welcoming you to Cape Town, South Africa and exploring how psychology can make a positive impact on the world around us.

Sincerely yours

Saths Cooper

President: XXX International Congress of Psychology

Invitation from the IUPsyS President

Dear Colleagues

Time flies, and it is hard to believe that three years ago the last ICP took place in my home country, Germany, and that next year ICP 2012 will take place in Cape Town, South Africa, a country I have visited several times and one I have always found enthralling. I am certainly looking forward to being there again and, as President of the International Union of Psychological Science (IUPsyS), under whose auspices the ICP is organized, I hope I will see you there and that by now you have already taken steps to ensure your participation.

Certainly this Congress is something not to be missed. As all International Congresses of Psychology, that of 2012 will offer an amazing wealth of scientific knowledge and opportunity for scientific exchange, as well as a remarkable cultural programme that will allow you to get to know the country and its people better. However, being set in such a vibrant context with such a wide variety of experiences to explore, the combination of a rich scientific programme with the possibility to visit areas such as Table Mountain, or even perhaps those further afield like the Cradle of Humankind, where the 2.3 million year-old remains of Australopithecus were discovered, is likely to mean that attending this ICP will be truly a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

I know it will be a first-class event from an organisational point of view. The Congress President Saths Cooper and his team are fully committed to ensuring you will have an unforgettable experience, both scientific and cultural, and that you will take away with you a lifetime of treasured memories. Organised around the theme Psychology Serving Humanity and committed to presenting new frontiers of psychological science and its application as the means to improving, developing and enriching society, work on the Congress is well underway. Hopefully your plans are also taking shape, with 1 December 2011, the deadline for the submission of abstracts, firmly fixed in your calendar.

I look forward to seeing you in Cape Town in July next year.

Rainer Silbereisen

President: International Union of Psychological Science

ICP 2012 is organised by the National Research Foundation of South Africa and the Psychological Society of South Africa under the auspices of the International Union of Psychological Science.

Controversial Debates

Controversial Debates, a presentation format introduced at the 2008 ICP in Berlin, stimulated great discussion. Controversial Debates will focus on topics that excite tremendous interest from psychologists and will feature prominently at ICP 2012. There will be a daily debate in a prominent time slot that will be chaired by leading psychologists.

Pre-Congress Workshops

Cutting-edge Pre-Congress Workshops, on topics of current interest that will have wide appeal, are being organised. These specially selected workshops will have additional Continuing Education (CE) credits. Organised at the Congress Venue, the price for each workshop includes materials and refreshments. The confirmed workshops are:

1. Engaging the disengaged: Cultural preparedness as a framework for career counselling
(Gideon Arulmani, Bangalore, India)
2. Endophenotype strategy for schizophrenia: Evidence from neurological soft signs
(Raymond C.K. Chan, Beijing, China)
3. Conflict, post-conflict and forced migration
(Giorgia Dona, University of East London, London, United Kingdom)
4. Psychological assessment and evidence-based practice in psychology
(John Hunsley, Univ of Ottawa, Canada)
5. Community psychology
(Montero, Maritza, Central University of Venezuela, Caracas, Venezuela)
6. Pathways for early career researchers in low resource settings
(Elias Mpofu, Univ of Sydney, Australia)
7. Hope for mental health for all in Africa: The role of the psychologists
(David Ndeti, University of Nairobi, Nairobi, Kenya)
8. African psychological guidelines for LGBTI-Affirmative practice: Global and local experience
(Juan Nel, Univ of South Africa, Pretoria)
9. What South Africa's transition tells us about identity, gender and race
(Kopano Ratele, Univ of South Africa, Cape Town)
10. Narrative Exposure Therapy as treatment for trauma spectrum disorders
(Margarete Schauer & Thomas Elbert, Univ of Konstanz, Germany)
11. Ethical principles for a global psychology: Building bridges across cultures
(Carole Sinclair, Canadian Psychological Association, Toronto, Canada)
12. Interactional Pattern Analysis
(Charl Vorster, North-West University, Potchefstroom, South Africa)

As additional workshops are confirmed these will be updated on the Congress website www.icp2012.com.

Continuing Education Credits

The entire Scientific Programme, including Pre-Congress Workshops, will enjoy Continuing Education (CE) credits. This will enable psychologists and other professionals from various countries to keep abreast of their Continuing Education requirements. For a full and updated list of these credits please visit www.icp2012.com. South African psychologists, e.g., will be entitled to 50 CEUs, including 6 CEUs in ethics.

International Journal of Psychology

Abstracts will be published in a special edition of the International Journal of Psychology (IJP) after the Congress. IJP is indexed in CCSI.

Congress Proceedings

A Selected Volume of Congress Proceedings will be published by Psychology Press after the Congress. Participants are urged to order a copy of the Proceedings when registering to take advantage of the discount. The deadline for receipt of presentations for consideration in the Proceedings is 27 July 2012.

Abstract Submission

Deadline for abstract submission: 1 December 2011

Deadline for submission of rapid communication posters: 1 March 2012

Notification regarding regular abstract submissions: 1 March 2012

Notification regarding rapid communication poster submissions: 1 April 2012

Abstracts for oral presentation, posters, and symposia may only be submitted electronically by using the online form on the Congress website www.icp2012.com.

Exhibitions

There will be a range of exhibits by leading publishers, technological innovators, international psychology organisations, and products of interest to delegates in the CTICC Exhibition Area. Potential exhibitors are requested to contact the PCO or the Congress Office.

Interactive Poster Sessions

There will be Interactive Poster Sessions from Monday 23 to Friday 27 July 2012 in the designated area of the CTICC. Information regarding poster format (including electronic format), set-up, and dismantling will be sent to presenters after the notification of acceptance.

Congress Website

Please visit www.icp2012.com for the latest information on the Congress. All relevant information (registration, abstract submission, accommodation, travel & sightseeing) is available online.

Congress Language

The language of the Congress is English.

Final Congress Programme & Abstracts

The Final Congress Programme and Abstracts will be published on the website www.icp2012.com in April 2012. Delegates will receive a copy of the Final Programme and Abstracts with Congress material on site.

Congress Proceedings

Psychology Press will publish a compilation of selected presentations in a specially edited volume of the Congress Proceedings, which will be organised in specific topic areas. Delegates are encouraged to select the Congress Proceedings when registering for the Congress to obtain the special Congress discount.

Letter of Invitation

A formal letter of invitation to delegates to help them raise funds and obtain visas to attend the Congress may be downloaded at any time from www.icp2012.com or this may be requested from the Congress Office by 1 May 2012.

Visa

Requirements for entry into South Africa differ from country to country, often depending on visa reciprocity with other countries. South Africa has one of the most advanced constitutional democracies in the world and subscribes to the Principle of Free Circulation of Scientists as pronounced by IUPsyS and the International Council for Science (ICSU), which has a Regional Office for Africa located in its capital, Pretoria, which hosts the missions of almost all countries of the world. Delegates are advised to contact South African Consular Missions in their countries or their travel agents or visit www.home-affairs.gov.za/Applying%20for%20a%20South%20African%20visa.html to ensure that they obtain visas in time to attend the Congress. In the unlikely event of any difficulty experienced, the Congress Office will gladly assist any delegate by 1 May 2012.

Insurance

The Congress fee does not include insurance. Participants should determine their own insurance needs. Participants may purchase relevant insurance from the Congress Office or should arrange their own insurance to cover health, travel and other needs.

Participants with Special Needs

The CTICC incorporates features that live up to internationally defined standards and regulations, as well as the Disabilities Act (ADA) and the South African National Building Regulations (NBR) Standards. The Congress venue offers full wheel-chair access, designated drop-off points and parking bays for people with disabilities, direct access escalators designed for the disabled, toilets for the physically challenged, and elevators with Braille inscriptions. The width of all external and internal doors has been designed to accommodate wheelchair access and lift buttons are placed to allow access by those in wheelchairs.

Accommodation suitable for participants with special needs will soon be published on the website.

Currency

The South African currency is the rand (ZAR), made up of 100 cents. Note denominations are 10, 20, 50, 100 and 200 rands and coins are 5, 10, 20 and 50 cents, and 1 rand, 2 rands and 5 rands. At the time of printing, the rand was roughly one tenth of the Euro and one seventh that of the US$. Foreign currency may be changed at forex outlets, hotels, banks and airports. Card withdrawals may also be made at numerous ATMs. Visa, MasterCard, Diners and Amex are widely accepted.

Weather

Cape Town is a year round destination with long hot summers and mild winters. In July (winter in the Southern Hemisphere) the temperature ranges from 10°C/50°F-18°C/64°F, described as a perfect green season when temperatures can reach the mid to late twenties (84°F). Cape Town's weather compares very favourably with San Francisco (enjoying more sunlight, less rain and wind, and is much warmer). The annual ambient air temperature is 19°C/66°F, higher than Barcelona or Rome and enjoys more light than all major Mediterranean cities (Madrid or Athens) and most cities enjoying a Mediterranean climate (Perth and Adelaide). It may rain and a sweater (jersey) is advisable, but to avoid sunburn please bring sun block (or purchase some when you arrive).

City of Cape Town

The Congress will be held in Cape Town, one of the premier academic and tourist destinations globally and South Africa's Mother City. A variety of tours (including famous World Heritage sites like Robben Island and Table Mountain) and breathtaking wildlife safaris will be offered to delegates and accompanying persons. More information about the city of Cape Town and the tours on offer will be available on the Congress website. Experience the warm hospitality of Africa through participation in this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to experience a dynamic scientific and stimulating social program in a unique cultural centre.

Satellite Conferences

Various related satellite conferences are being planned around ICP 2012. Delegates are urged to take advantage of the discounts applicable to joint registration of ICP 2012 and the 21st International Conference of the International Association of Cross-Cultural Psychology (IACCP), which will be held from 17 to 21 July 2012 in Stellenbosch.

The 5th International Conference on Teaching Psychology (ICOPE, see Topic Category 43 on p. 11) and the 72nd Annual Conference of the International Council of Psychologists (See Topic Category 27 on p. 11) will be held as specific tracks of ICP 2012.

National Conferences

PsySSA - The 18th PsySSA South African Psychology Congress will be part of ICP 2012.

SAAsMA - The next Biennial Conference of SAAsMA (previously SASAEM) will be a specific track of ICP 2012.

SACNA - The 13th Biennial SACNA Conference will be part of ICP 2012.

SIOPSA - The 2012 Annual Conference of Siopsa will be part of ICP 2012.

Academic Partners

The universities of Cape Town, Fort Hare, Pretoria, South Africa, Stellenbosch, Witwatersrand and Zululand and Monash, Nelson Mandela Metropolitan, North-West, Rhodes and Walter Sisulu universities are ICP 2012 Academic Partners.

Regional Partners

The Botswana Association of Psychologists, the Mozambique Psychological Association, the Psychological Association of Namibia and the Zimbabwe Psychological Association are ICP 2012 Regional Partners.

Opening Ceremony & Welcome Reception

Sunday 22 July 2012

All delegates and accompanying persons are cordially invited to the ICP 2012 Opening Ceremony at the Cape Town International Convention Centre. Besides selected addresses, the Opening Ceremony will feature a South African Cultural Extravaganza. The Welcome Reception that follows will offer participants the unique opportunity to engage with psychologists from all over the world in a convivial setting, with special South African fare and music.

Social Events & Accompanying Persons' Programme

A special programme for accompanying persons, including a complimentary city tour, has been arranged and delegates are encouraged to book this when registering. An exciting array of social events and tours catering for a variety of tastes has been organised for delegates and accompanying persons. A small selection of these tours will be on the website.

Cape Town Gala Dinner & Party

An extravaganza Cape Town Gala Dinner and Party is scheduled for the evening of Wednesday 25 July, when delegates will be treated to exquisite South African cuisine, superb wine and lively music to dance to. Please pre-book for this dinner and party on the registration section of the website.

Closing Ceremony & Handover to 31st ICP

Friday 27 July 2012

Delegates and accompanying persons are invited to the Closing Ceremony and Handover to the 31st ICP 2016 (Yokohama, Japan) at the Congress Venue.

Accommodation

Congress delegates are assured of a range of quality hotel and other accommodation at reasonable prices, which have been secured by ICP 2012. A list of such accommodation will soon be available on the congress website.

Travel

Most airline networks fly to South Africa. Johannesburg is the main hub and there are scores of daily connections to Cape Town, which is a 2-hour flight away. Whether flying into Johannesburg, Durban (also a 2-hour flight away) or directly to Cape Town, there will be ICP 2012 Help Desks in the Arrivals Halls from 15-25 July 2012 for the convenience of Congress participants. Attractive travel packages may be booked on the Congress website, including sightseeing tours covering the entire Southern African Region. There will be a Tours and Travel Desk at the Congress to cater for participants needs.

Tours

Delegates are encouraged to book those events and tours that meet their needs on the Congress website. Participants are welcome to also make use of the Tours and Travel Desk at the Congress for their convenience.

Close to Cape Town is the longest scenic wine route in the world. From June to October is safari season in South Africa, with big game viewing approximately 2 hour's drive from the CTICC. South Africa is ranked first in the world for its floral kingdom, and the Kruger National Park has the greatest variety of wildlife species on the African continent. South Africa boasts eight World Heritage sites, including the Cradle of Humanity, Robben Island (Cape Town) and the Cape Floral Kingdom/Table Mountain National Park (Cape Town). South Africa's hotels, game lodges and restaurants are frequent winners of top global awards, with Cape Town being a leading tourist, business, political and professional destination.

Participants are welcome to indicate their tour needs and ICP 2012 will attempt to oblige with suggested itineraries. Besides the few Cape Town area tours listed below, there are natural wonders like the Victoria Falls (in Zambia or Zimbabwe) and the Okavango Swamps (in Botswana or Namibia), the oldest desert in the world, the Namib, and any number of smaller or larger game parks, safe swimming, great surfing or tanning beaches and other outdoor and indoor activities to suit all tastes. On the website is a small sample of the great variety of tours on offer in the Cape Town area.

On receiving the registration and corresponding payment, the Congress Office will send a confirmation receipt to participants. Please present this confirmation receipt at the congress counter when fetching your congress materials.

Payment

When registering for ICP 2012, please effect payment of the applicable registration fee. Payment may be made via secure encrypted credit card or electronic funds transfer (EFT), details of which are available on the Congress website www.icp2012.com.

Cancellation of Participation

The Congress Office must be notified in writing of any cancellation. For cancellations of participation in the congress and/or workshops by 31 December 2011, 75% of the registration fee will be refunded. For cancellations between 1 January-1 March 2012, 50% of the registration fee will be refunded. No refund can be made for cancellations received after 1 March 2012.

List of Participants

To encourage communication and collaboration amongst psychologists, participants will be given the opportunity to have their name, institution, city and country in the list of participants published on the congress website. Bulletin boards will also be available for use by participants in the congress registration area.
